

Spring 2020 Updates

The Academy is approved to offer distance education and students were able to complete the semester with a successful transition to remote instruction. The semester was finished on the published date of April 24, 2020. Tuition and fees support the platforms for delivery of instruction and are refunded according to the refund policy on the enrollment agreement and catalog.